

Martial Trumpet. L.M.D.

A major.

tune from Southern Harmony, arranged by T. Key

Soprano

1. Breth - ren, don't you hear the sound? The mar - tial trum - pet now - is blow - ing. Boun - ty's of - fer'd, joy and Men in or - der list - ing round, And sol - diers to the stand - ard flow - ing.

Alto

2. Those who long in sin have lain, And felt the hand of dire op - pres - sion, Lo, the sick, the blind, the
Are re - leas'd from Sat - an's chain, And then en - dow'd with long po - ses - sion.

Tenor

3. Vic - t'ry is not to the strong, The bur - den's on our Cap - tain's shoul - der, Those who can - not fight or None so ag - ed, or so young, But may en - list and be a sol - dier:

Bass

4. Do not fear, the cause is good; Come, who will to the crown as - pi - re? In this cause let's fol - low
In this cause the mar - tyrs stood, And shout - ed vic - t'ry in the fi - re.

Soprano

peace, To ev - ry sol - dier this is giv - en When from toils and war they cease, A man - sion bright pre - pa'rd in hea - ven.

Alto

lame! The ma - la - dies of all are heal - ed: Out - law reb - els, too, may claim And find a par - don free - ly seal - ed.

Tenor

fly, Be - neath his ban - ner find pro - tect - ion; None who on his arm re - ly, Shall be re - duced to base sub - ject - ion.

Bass

on, And soon we'll tell the pleas - ing sto - ry, How by faith we gain'd the crown, And fought our way to life and glo - ry.